DETAILED OFFICE ACTION

Election/ Restriction

1. Claims 75-115 are pending in this application.

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I/ Group I. Claims 75-86, drawn to an active termination circuit, classified in class 327 subclass 108.

II/ Group II. Claims 87-100 , drawn to a memory integrated circuit device, classified in class 365 subclass 198

III/ Group III. Claims 101-115 , drawn to a computer system , classified in class 700, subclass 90.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions II and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the computer system can have a novel processor to be patentable and The subcombination has separate utility such as: the claimed memory device can be used in a video display system.

3. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the memory device can have a novel sense amplifier to be patentable and The subcombination has separate utility such as: the claimed active termination circuit can be used to send and receive signal on transmission lines for two communicating electronic devices or use as an active resistor for amplifier feedback compensation .

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, the fields of search are not co-existent. Therefore, separate examinations would be required and restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Applicant is advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently filed petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(h).
